Dance Marathon, CYMplify present Friday Food Truck Rally for kids

GAINESVILLE, Fla.— Come out for food, fundraising and holiday fun at Dance Marathon's Food Truck Rally.

Dance Marathon and CYMplify present the first ever Friday Food Truck Rally on Dec. 5, from 6 to 10 p.m. at CYMplify, located at 5402 NW 8th Ave. The food truck line up includes Bubba Luigi's Road Trip, FED Food Company, Go Go Stuff Yourself, Humble Pie, Off The Griddle, Soup to Nuts and Mobsta Lobsta.

Miracle families will be speaking at the event, in addition to the sounds of Ramos Pinta, a Gainesville Latin band formed by Alejandro Ramos, Mario Ku and Doctor Bob.

In addition, the CYMplify store will be open. CYMplify sells items such as Alex and Ani and many others. The ice cream store will also be open.

The theme for this event is holiday, so attendees are encouraged to wear anything to show holiday spirit including: tacky sweaters, or Santa, elf or snowman costumes.

This event benefits UF Health Shands Children's Hospital, Gainesville's local Children's Miracle Network Hospital. CYMplify is donating 10 percent of all sales from the store and 20 percent of sales from the ice cream shop.

All ages are welcome at this family-friendly event benefiting the children treated at UF Health Shands Children's Hospital.
